

CONTINUCCARE UNABLE TO PRESENT AT THE NOBLE FINANCIAL EQUITY CONFERENCE

Miami, FL, August 18, 2008 – Continucare Corporation (AMEX: CNU) announced today that, due to severe weather conditions in South Florida, management will not be able to present at the Fourth Annual Noble Financial Equity Conference at the Loews Lake Las Vegas Resort, Nevada. Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Richard C. Pfenniger, Jr. had been previously scheduled to speak at 10:00 a.m. PDT on August 19, 2008.

About Continucare Corporation

Continucare provides primary care physician services on an outpatient basis through a network of medical facilities and independent physician affiliates (IPAs) in the State of Florida. Continucare has 18 medical offices equipped with state-of-the-practice technology and staffed with experienced physicians and a comprehensive support staff. In addition, Continucare provides health practice management services to IPAs who practice primary care medicine in South Florida. Continucare assists these physicians with medical utilization and pharmacy management and specialist network development, freeing them to devote more time to patient care.
